CIRCULAR LETTER TO ALL BRITISH COLUMBIA LAND SURVEYORS

Re: General Survey Instructions

Effective July 1, 1991, a new survey instruction regulation (B. C. Reg. 156/91) will replace the existing regulation. Copies are available from this office for $17.50 plus GST, including a binder and reinforced dividers. There is no Provincial tax on books or regulations.

In order to allow some time for land surveyors and Land Title Office staff to become familiar with any new provisions, a period of leniency in the enforcement of the new provisions will apply. Plans dated prior to July 1, 1991 will, of course, be accepted in accordance with the provisions of the old instructions. While surveyors should make every effort to comply with the new instructions, plans dated prior to October 1, 1991 will be accepted if prepared under either the old or new instructions. Plans dated after October 1, 1991 must comply with the new instructions.

While surveyors are responsible for adherence to all of the new instructions, the following notes may be of assistance in highlighting substantial changes.

Yours sincerely,

D. A. DUFFY
Surveyor General and Director
